

Prayers for our children

Bartlesville, OK Conference August 11, 2012

1. To know Christ as personal Savior.
2. To have a hatred for sin.
3. That they would be caught when guilty.
4. That they would be kept from temptation.
5. That they would take their responsibilities seriously and always do their best and work hard.
6. That they will accept disappointments and difficulties in life, realizing that God is helping them to grow.
7. That they would respect those in authority over them.
8. Desire the right kind of friends and be protected from the wrong kind.
9. That they will be protected from spiritual warfare and attack.
10. That they would sense God's protection and guidance.
11. That they will be totally committed to the Lord Jesus by being single-minded and sold out to the Lord.
12. That they will develop self-control in all areas.
13. That they will sense a call to excellence and integrity.
14. That they will desire wisdom and make good choices.
15. That they will be kept for the right mate and that that potential mate will be a growing believer.
16. That they will discover and fulfill the plan God has for them.
